Oahu Convention Chooses Haole Senator and Two Representatives.

At the Oahu convention of the Independent Home Rule party in the drill shed yesterday, candidates were nominated to represent this Island in both houses of the Ralauckalani announced that the D. Kalauckalani anticunced that the officers of the last convention were the sheets of the day. It was then understood by the delegation that D. Kalauckalari was their chairman. At this juncture Mahoe's request that the chair be addressed Mr. President prevailed and at no time afterwards was the honor conferred on the chairman violated. The chairman himself failed to respond unless he was addressed as Mr. President.

After a lengthy discussion by the members of the delegation the president opened the nominations for Senators.

The following names were placed in nomination: James K. Kaulia, George Markham, D. Kalauckalani, D. Kanuha, J. O. Carter, J. W. Pipikane, William Auld, S. K. Pua, R. N. Boyd, E. C. Macfarlane, John Kanul, J. P. Makainai, Frank Harvey and J. Emmeluth.

When the nominations were closed D. Kanuha said that J. O. Carter had told him that he would not run on the Inde-pendent ticket because he did not think Ex-Deputy Sheriff of Koloa.

Fusion Candidate on Kauai Accused of Misappropriating Funds.

Robert Walaleale, ex-Deputy Sheriff for Koloa, Island of Kaual, is charged by the Government with embezzlement of public funds collected by him during his incumbency of that office.

news of the officer's alleged misconduct and misappropriation of public moneys was brought up in the Governor's coun-

At the present time Robert Walaleale is a candidate on the fusion legis-lative ticket for the Sixth Representative tienet for the sixth Representa-tive district composed of Kauai and Nithau. In the last few days his friends have strongly advised him to have his name dropped from the ticket in view of the serious charges made against him by the Territorial government.

Attorney General Dole was seen last evening at the Hawalian Hotel by an Advertiser representative to ascertain the facts leading up to the issuance of the warrant for the ex-Deputy Sheriff's arrest.

"Is it true that Robert Waialeale is charged with misappropriation of public funds?" queried the reporter.

"Yes," replied Mr. Dole. "The beginning of the officer's predicament came about when the September term of court was held at Koloa. He came into the courtroom during the session intoxicated. He was told to leave the courtroom and his conduct was at once reported to High Sheriff Brown. Brown at once put Robert Walaleale out of office.

"Another man was sent over th think and then it was discovered that Waialeale had been issuing licenses to storekeepers and other persons entitled to them and had not turned over the money to the Government. The amount involved I believe sums up in the neighborhood of $214.

"On Monday morning last Robert. Wainleale came to my office and said ne had come to Honolulu for the pur-pose of 'squaring up' the matter. I told ilm that if he wanted to pay the money nto the Treasury we would be glad to have him do so, but that his doing so vould be no safeguard against the lovernment prosecuting him.

"He admitted his offense and begged .hat he be not prosecuted.

"I brought the matter up in the Governor's council that same morning and it was discussed at length. I finally decided that he should be prosecuted and gave orders to High Sheriff Brown to that effect."

No one has yet been appointed to fill the position made vacant by the discharge of Robert Walaleale as Deputy Sheriff. It is learned that soon after Walaleale's removal certain storekeepers were requested to renew their yearly licenses which had run out. One of them produced a license for the ensuing year made out by Walaleale but no record of it had been entered. The storekeeper had paid in his license fee, but the money had not been turned over to the proper Territorial officer. The matter was brought to the attention of Mr. Rice who in turn reported it to High Sheriff Brown.

An investigation of Walalcale's books followed which were checked up in the High Sheriff's office. There the short-age was discovered. Walaleale is still in the City as far as the Police department has any knowledge.

The accused ex-officer of the Attorney General's department performed the duties of Deputy Sheriff at Koloa for nearly three years. Prior to that time he had lived in Honolulu and was at one time a clerk in the Police department offices during the reign of

It is quite possible that Robert Waialcale's name will be dropped from the list of candidates on the Kauai Repretuted. He does not represent any one party having been placed on the ticket in hand since Monday when the first by the citizens' party movement,

After the convention a mass meeting was called for seven o'clock and the drill shed was packed to the doors. Wilcox, James Quinn and others made hot speeches. The following were the Senatorial nominations: JAS. K. KAULIA, D. KANUHA, J. O. CARTER, S. K. PUA, R. N. BOYD and D. KALAUOKALANI.

In the Fifth District the following were the nominations for Representatives: J. P. MAKAINAI, WILLIAM MOSSMAN, GEORGE MARKHAM, J. K. PRENDER-GAST, S. K. MAHOE and J. K. PAELE.

Mahoe moved that a committee on credentials be appointed. Noehu thought that that was not the first business, and therefore did not comply with his brother delegate's request.

The motion was not carried, and the chairman then placed the nomination for a secretary in order. W. K. Kalehuia was elected as secretary unanimously.
